Though 94, Hemet area's 'Hot Dog Cart Man' still volunteering at parks

Sherman "Sherm" Elliott has been a fixture at Valley-Wide recreation events since the late 1980s.

At 94, Sherman “Sherm” Elliott has done a lot of things in his life.

But most San Jacinto Valley residents came to know him for his many years as the “Hot Dog Cart Man” at Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District functions since the late 1980s.

Though he sold the cart several years ago to tend to his wife’s health issues, he was hired as a recreation aide for the organization in July 2009 and still serves the district at its Valle Vista Community Center.

“The recreation department has been wonderful to me and taken good care of me,” the Valle Vista resident said. “Working with all the coaches and parents over the years, I’ve met so many great people.”

Valley-Wide General Manager Dean Wetter met Elliott in the early 1990s, when Wetter was the board clerk/assistant to the general manager, Sam Goepp.

“When he wasn’t selling hot dogs, you could always find him at Valley-Wide events helping out,” Wetter said. “Sherman always had positive attitude, warm personality and a solid work ethic. And, he is a big supporter of bringing the community together.”

In a 1994 recommendation letter, Goepp called Elliott “the most reliable, conscientious and loyal concessionaire we have had the pleasure to work with.”

When Wetter returned to Valley-Wide in 2012 as its general manager he was surprised to learn that Elliot had only been an employee for three years. He recalled seeing Elliot at many events, from the Haunted House to Opening Day.

“Most of our volunteers are coaches or parents whose kids are involved in our programs, many others belong to service clubs like the Friends of Valley-Wide Foundation, Exchange Club, Kiwanis, etc. Sherman is unique. He didn’t belong to any service club – he just really enjoys community service.”

Elliott’s duties are to open the Valle Vista Community Center every morning and

“I make sure the building is secure and the night crew has done what they should. Then I stay and answer phones at the front desk until 8 a.m. when staff arrives,” Elliott said. “This job keeps me going, it gives me something to do. I don’t do much but what I do, I do it well.”

Elliott said he served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II and enlisted in the Air Force during the Korean War. He then enrolled at Long Beach State University to get a bachelor’s degree. He later earned his master’s degree at Chapman College. During this time, he entered the field of education and, after one year as a teacher, he worked 20 years as a school principal in Huntington Beach, Iowa and Maine.

Wetter said Elliott continues to help at other Valley-Wide facilities and at special events.

“He has a love for Valley-Wide and we have a love for him,” Wetter said. “He is a great example of how we provide opportunities for people of all ages and we hope he inspires others to ‘Create Community,’ which is our founding motto.”

Play Ball! It's Valley-Wide opening day 2019

Food, fun, and prizes mark the start of baseball season

■ Kyle Headlee / Contributed

The smells of freshly raked dirt, brand new white chalk, and crisp cut grass are in the air as baseball season approaches the valley. For many years, Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District has stepped up to give the kids in the San Jacinto Valley an opening day ceremony they would never forget, and 2019 was no different.

Even though the absence of Michael Paul (former Valley-Wide Vice President who retired recently) was felt, Rene R. Gonzales, current Valley-Wide Vice President, and the rest of his team put on quite a memorial event. There were attractions for all ages, including free raffles, food trucks, and specialty craft vendors. Soto's custom-made hand-stitched and bound gloves were there offering baseball glove repair or the opportunity to design and buy custom gloves. If handmade memorabilia are more your thing, you could find Craft N Scrap With Tina where she offered custom-made sports keepsakes for any team and sport.

The ceremony itself was very positive and encouraging. Many of the valley's members of Congress gave speeches about upcoming things changing in the valley, but the whole thing started with a beautiful national anthem and presentation of the flag by the Riverside County Sheriff's Colorguard.

The best moment was when Matt Luke (former major league player for the Los Angeles Dodgers) took the microphone and addressed the kids. He said he wanted to share three main points with them to help them become better baseball players and people.

The first point, he said, is: – “hustle.” No matter what you are doing, you have to hustle. Someone with all the talent in the world who doesn’t hustle will get beaten by someone with zero talent who is willing to give 100 percent effort in everything they do, said Luke. He told the kids that this doesn’t only apply in baseball, but also applies in the classroom or at home.

Point number two:- “Sportsmanship is everything,” he explained to the kids and parents. Proper sportsmanship, respecting the game, and respecting each other is everything. Whether you are teammates or rivals, the game of baseball is more than just winning and losing.

Luke shared a story with the players about his rookie season with the Dodgers. He was in a slump and couldn’t hit a ball to save his life. The more he focused on that, the worse his at-bats were becoming. It wasn’t until a player named Sammy Sosa (who played on the opposite team) pulled him to the side and told him “Hey Matt, relax! Go out there and have fun.” Luke said he took his advice and finished the game with two hits. The fact that his opponent took the time to put his arms around him and encourage him to get out of the slump is what baseball is all about.

Luke’s third and final point was a good one: “Keep the game fun.” He reminded all of the coaches and parents that their kids aren’t in the major leagues, so don’t treat them like they are. It is important to keep the game fun because that’s why we fell in love with it in the first place.

Luke wanted the parents to know that when he compares his 11-year career as a professional to his 11-year career as a Little Leaguer, it’s the memories of playing with his friends as a child that come to mind first. Keeping the game fun is a key part of the process that develops the passion it takes to get to the next level. Valley-Wide’s opening day in 2019 was a great event for coaches, players, and families. One player from the Astros (Adrian Hernandez) even told me, “I can’t wait for the season to start!”

So now it’s time to pick up those bats and play ball!

Former longtime Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District Board of Directors member Larry Minor was recently named as a 2018 Champion of the Community by the California Park and Recreation Society. The Champion of the Community award honors and recognizes individuals and organizations who have contributed significant effort to influence and improve the quality of their community through parks and recreation.

Minor received his award during the annual Service Awards of Excellence Recognition Banquet on Mar. 22 in Sacramento.

Minor has become synonymous with parks in the San Jacinto Valley. He served on the Valley-Wide Board of Directors for 22 years before retiring in May 2018. During that time, he was instrumental in many programs and helped the district grow to more than 80 parks and community centers, serving 250,000 residents over 800 square miles in three cities and unincorporated areas of Riverside County. Most notably, his vision and direction led to a state-of-the art snack bar/restroom building at Diamond Valley Park, a facility with eight ball fields. The building allowed the Park District to expand its sports leagues and major national and international tournaments at the park, which draws more than 100,000 visitors annually. Over the last 10 years, during his time on the board, Minor and his wife Sandy also donated more than 300 bicycles that were given to children at Valley-Wide's annual "Breakfast with Santa" event.

Minor also built softball fields on his property and allowed park district teams to use them for no fees. He never took pay or benefits while serving on the Board of Directors. He was the board president several times and was honored as Board President of the Year by the California Special Districts Association in 2014.

Minor's vision was to provide recreation to as many children as possible and this was achieved through his dedication to provide more places for them to play. His positive and meaningful impact on the San Jacinto Valley community has laid the foundation for thousands of children and adults to participate in recreational events.

Hunting eggs season

It was an egg-stravaganza as youngsters use any means necessary during an Easter egg hunt at Valley-Wide's Diamond Valley Lake Community Park in Hemet, where 17,000 eggs were provided.

From staff reports

On the day before Easter, the hunts were on. Across the In-land area and beyond, children gripping Easter baskets gathered to collect colorful plastic eggs as their parents watched.

At Valley-Wide Recreation and Park

District parks, children chased down the plastic prizes Saturday at Diamond Valley Lake Sports Park and Gibbel Park in Hemet, Rancho Bella Vista Park in French Valley and at the Marion V. Ashley Community Center in Menifee.

Prizes, contests and visits from the Easter Bunny rounded out the day's activities.

'Hot Dog Cart Man' still volunteering

By Diane A. Rhodes
Correspondent

At 94, Sherman "Shern" Elliott has done a lot of things in his life.

But most San Jacinto Valley residents came to know him for his many years as the "Hot Dog Cart Man" at Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District functions since the late 1980s.

Though he sold the cart several years ago to tend to his wife's health issues, he was hired as a recreation aide for the organization in July 2009 and still serves the district at its Valle Vista Community Center.

"The recreation department has been wonderful to me and taken good care of me," the Valle Vista resident said. "Working with all the coaches and parents over the years, I've met so many great people."

Valley-Wide General Manager Dean Wetter met Elliott in the early 1990s when Wetter was the board clerk/assistant to the general manager, Sam Goepf.

"When he wasn't selling hot dogs, you could always find him at Valley-Wide events helping out," Wetter said. "Sherman always had positive attitude, warm personality and a solid work ethic. And, he is a big supporter of bringing the community together."

In a 1994 recommendation letter, Goepf called Elliott "the most reliable, conscientious and loyal concessionaire we have had the pleasure to work with."

When Wetter returned to Valley-Wide in 2012 as its general manager he was surprised to learn that Elliott had only been an employee for three years. He recalled seeing Elliott at many events, from the Haunted House to Opening Day.

"Most of our volunteers are coaches or parents whose kids are involved in our programs, many others belong to service clubs like the Friends of Valley-Wide Foundation, Exchange Club, Kiwanis, etc. Sherman is unique. He didn't belong to any service club. He just really enjoys community service."

Elliott's duties are to open the Valle Vista Community Center every morning and to check the facility and grounds to make sure everything is ready for another day of classes and activities.

"I make sure the building is secure and the night crew has done what they should,

Then I stay and answer phones at the front desk until 8 a.m. when staff arrives," Elliott said. "This job keeps me going. It gives me something to do. I don't do much but what I do, I do it well."

Elliott said he served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II and enlisted in the Air Force during the Korean War. He then enrolled at Cal State Long Beach to get a bachelor's degree. He earned his master's degree at Chapman College. During that time, he entered the field of education and, after one year as a teacher, he worked 20 years as a school principal in Huntington Beach, Iowa and Maine.

Wetter said Elliott continues to help at other Valley-Wide facilities and at special events.

"He has a love for Valley-Wide and we have a love for him," Wetter said. "He is a great example of how we provide opportunities for people of all ages and we hope he inspires others to 'Create Community,' which is our founding motto."

I pledge allegiance...

Some 300 attendees at the Willie Ryan Memorial Reverse Drawing Friday, April 5, sponsored by the Hemet San Jacinto Chamber of Commerce and held at the new Soboba Casino, were hard pressed to find an American flag inside the recently completed Event Center when it came time to say the Pledge of Allegiance. With a little bit of "valley ingenuity," however, the group rallied around the only flag to be found - a tiny replica on the end of a wire stick. It was a humorous, yet touching moment of appreciation for our flag, country, and freedom-inspired way of life. The event raised thousands for the Chamber and awarded a $10,000 grand prize to five lucky individuals who split the winnings. The event commemorates Wilfred "Willie" Ryan, owner of the old Vonberg Hotel and past president of the Ramona Pageant and the Hemet Chamber, who conceived the reverse drawing in 1992. Ryan died in 2016 at the age of 94.

his team put on quite a memorial event. There were attractions for all ages, including free raffles, food trucks, and specialty craft vendors. Soto's custom-made hand-stitched and bound gloves were there offering baseball glove repair or the opportunity to design and buy custom gloves. If handmade memorabilia are more your thing, you could find Craft N Scrap With Tina where she offered custom-made sports keepsakes for any team and sport.

The ceremony itself was very positive and encouraging. Many of the valley's members of Congress gave speeches about upcoming things changing in the valley, but the whole thing started with a beautiful national anthem and presentation of the flag by the Riverside County Sheriff's Colorguard.

The best moment was when Matt Luke (former major league player for the Los Angeles Dodgers) took the microphone and addressed the kids. He said he wanted to share three main points with them to help them become better baseball players and people.

The first point, he said, is: - "hustle." No matter what you are doing, you have to hustle. Someone with all the talent in the world who doesn't hustle will get beaten by someone with zero talent who is willing to give 100 percent effort in everything they do, said Luke. He told the kids that this doesn't only apply in baseball, but also applies in the classroom or at home.

Point number two: - "Sportsmanship is everything," he explained to the kids and parents. Proper sportsmanship, respecting the game, and respecting each other is everything. Whether you are teammates or rivals, the game of baseball is more than just winning and losing.

Luke shared a story with the players about his rookie season with the Dodgers. He was in a slump and couldn't hit a ball to save his life. The more he focused on that, the worse his at-bats were becoming.

It wasn't until a player named Sammy Sosa (who played on the opposite team) pulled him to the side and told him "Hey Matt, relax! Go out there and have fun." Luke said he took his advice and finished the game with two hits. The fact that his opponent took the time to put his arms around him and encourage him to get out of the slump is what baseball is all about.

Luke's third and final point was a good one: "Keep the game fun." He reminded all of the coaches and parents that their kids aren't in the major leagues, so don't treat them like they are. It is important to keep the game fun because that's why we fell in love with it in the first place.

Luke wanted the parents to know that when he compares his 11-year career as a professional to his 11-year career as a Little Leaguer, it's the memories of playing with his friends as a child that come to mind first. Keeping the game fun is a key part of the process that develops the passion it takes to get to the next level. Valley-Wide's opening day in 2019 was a great event for coaches, players, and families. One player from the Astros (Adrian Hernandez) even told me, "I can't wait for the season to start!"

So now it's time to pick up those bats and play ball!
